RECITALS:

The departments desire to offer programs and resource sharing including direct printed aligner technology, but not limited to join educational and research programs for the students and faculties of both the institutions and have agreed to offer such programs on the terms and conditions contained herein.

Now, therefore, for and in consideration of their mutual promises and understanding, the parties agree as follows: '

SCOPE OF THE MOU:

A. Exchange of information.

The two institutions will work to develop agreements or programs for exchanging the available resources in each institution including direct printed aligner technology, research and patient data and the other educational materials.

B. Cooperation for the development of resources.

The two institutions will explore avenues to develop financial resources to support educational activities sponsored under this agreement, including joint grant proposals.

C. Research Publications:

Any publications resulting from the research will acknowledge the contribution of participants, who will be consulted prior to the submission of materials and, as appropriate, will be invited to collaborate as co-authors. Participants will jointly agree on who has access to the research data and where the data will be physically located.

In each of the above-mentioned areas of cooperation and any other areas in which the two institutions wish to cooperate, detailed arrangements can be developed through separate memoranda of understanding, exchange of letters, appendices or other written agreements, all of which must be signed in the writing by both parties to be effective.

D. Exchange of students.

Tagore dental college and Vishnu dental college agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- a) Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- b) An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- c) His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.

Others

- a) To exchange information on research and educational programs,
- b) To exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programs,
- c) To jointly organize short-term continuing education programs on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- d) To organize jointly seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- e) To propose and engage jointly in research or training programs sponsored by funding agencies, and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- f) To exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research,
- g) The provision of cultural and intellectual enrichment opportunities for staff and students of both institutes,
- h) To use laboratory facilities in specific cases for a limited period,
- i) To permit students, staff and faculty members to use library facility.

TERMS AND TERMINATIONS.

- (a) This MOU shall remain in effect from the date of signing for a period of (05) Five years.
- (b) The MOU may be extended or renewed for additional periods of time upon the mutual written consent of the parties subject to such terms and conditions as the parties shall determine.

(b) If either party believes the stated purposes of this MOU are not being fulfilled, the other party shall be notified of the areas of concern in writing. Both parties shall attempt to resolve those concerns through common efforts. If no solution can be achieved, either party may terminate this MOU by providing written notification at least (6) Six months in advance; provided, however, that such termination shall not take effect with respect to students already enrolled in the programmes until such students have been provided an opportunity to complete their coursework.

(c) If the termination is for the other party's non-compliance with any material term of this MOU, the party desiring to terminate will contact the other party in writing, and such party shall have thirty (30) days to correct the situation (cure period). If the situation is not corrected after the thirty (30) day cure period, the termination shall be effective immediately following the thirty (30) day cure period; provided, however, that such termination shall not take effect with respect to students already enrolled in the programs until such students have been provided an opportunity to complete their coursework.

FORCE MAJEURE

If as a result of an act of force majeure, including without limitation, an act of nature, war, riot, labor dispute, strike, threat thereof, intervention of a Government agency or instrumentality, or other occurrence beyond the reasonable control of either party, a party is hindered in performing its obligations hereunder or is thereby rendered unable to perform its obligation hereunder, then, in such event, such party shall have the right, upon notifying the other of the occurrence of force majeure as here in defined, to suspend performance until the event of force majeure has passed. In the event that either party is unable to perform for a period in excess of two (2) months at any time after the commencement date of this MOU due to an act of force majeure, the other party may, at its option, terminate the MOU

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

In the case of any dispute that may arise in future shall be resolved through mutual consultation and discussion. All efforts shall be made by both the parties to iron out the differences, if any, and in the event of not being able to resolve the tangle, the issue may be resolved through Arbitration.

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS

The parties are independent contractors of one another. Nothing in this MOU shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, agency, or employment relationship between the parties. Neither party is authorized or empowered to act as agent for the other for any purpose and shall not on behalf of the other enter into any contract, warranty, or representation as to any matter.
