PROGRAM REPORT

World health organization celebrates 14th June every year as “World Blood Donor Day”. The aim of this celebration is to raise awareness on blood and its products transfusion at global level. It also provides an opportunity to awaken the government and other health agencies to provide adequate awareness and infrastructure to increase the collection of blood from voluntary and healthy donors. Safe collection and transfusion of blood and its products is a crucial aspect of care and public health.

To ensure that everyone who needs safe blood has access to it, all countries need voluntary, unpaid donors who give blood regularly. Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, despite limited mobility and other challenges, blood donors in many countries have continued to donate blood and plasma to patients who need transfusion. This extraordinary effort during a time of unprecedented crisis highlights the crucial role of well-organized, committed voluntary, non-remunerated blood donors in ensuring a safe and sufficient blood supply during normal and emergency times.

Focus of this year’s campaign

For 2021, the World Blood Donor Day slogan will be “Give blood and keep the world beating”. The message highlights the fact that blood donors across globe keep the world pulsating by donating blood and saving millions of lives. This reinforces the need to make a global call to many more people all over the world to donate blood and make others’ lives bright. A special focus of this year’s campaign will be the role of young people in ensuring a safe blood supply. In many countries, young people have been at the forefront of activities and initiatives aimed at achieving safe blood supplies through voluntary, non-remunerated blood donations. In light of this focus, NSS unit of Tagore dental college and Hospital conducted a lively talk on “உதிரம்கொடுப்போம் உயிர்காப்போம்”.

About the speaker

PROGRAM REPORT

GRANT WRITING – THE PATH TO QUALITY RESEARCH

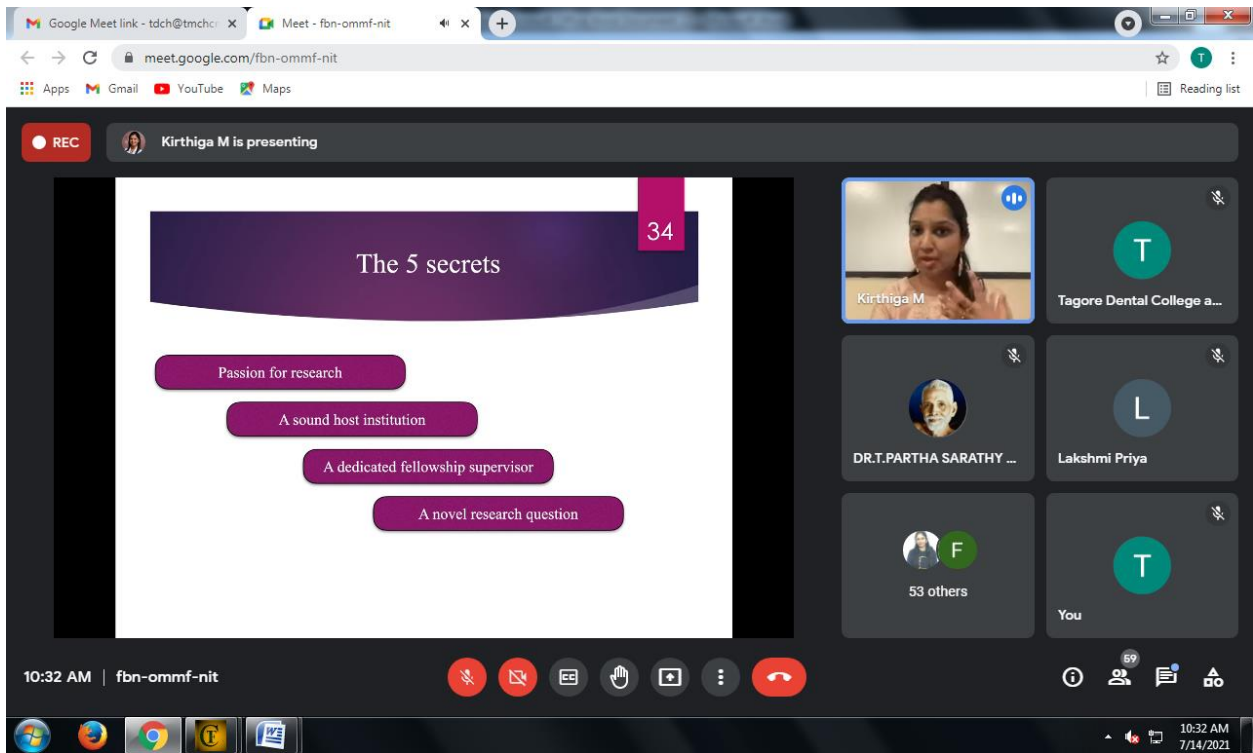

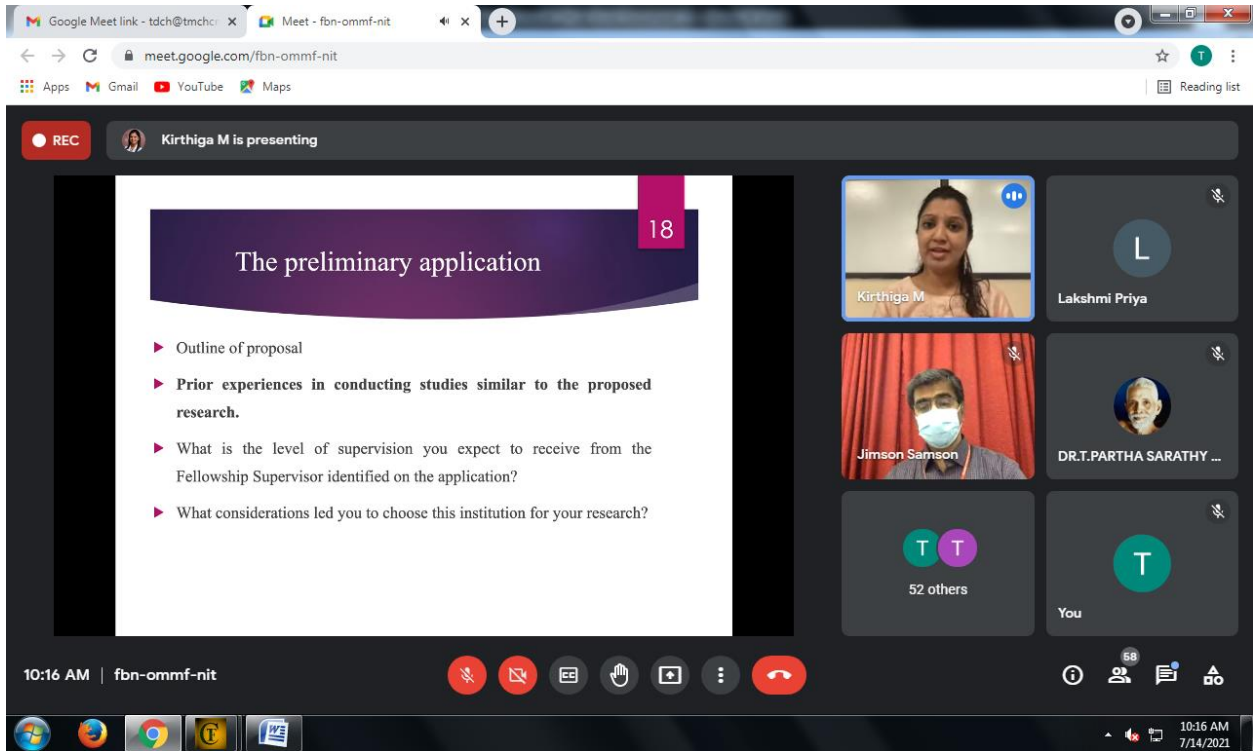

Grant writing is the only gateway to quality and focused research. This is definitely the need of the hour especially in India, where funds are available, but not tapped by the researchers due to lack of knowledge. Research being a never ending quest requires investing one's intellect, time and money. In order to carry out focused, quality research, the art of grant writing must be mastered.

Our guest speaker Dr.Kirthiga.M gave an insightful lecture about the various grant agencies in India and also shared a simplified checklist to succeed in grant writing. The speaker also gave a glimpse of her success story that was motivational for the participants. The lecture was followed by an interactive question and answer session that clarified the participants' queries.

Distribution

- When we measure a quantity in a large number of individuals we call the pattern of values obtained a distribution.
- For example, figure shows the distribution of serum albumin concentration in a sample of adults displayed as a histogram.

Perception of Dental Professionals towards Biostatistics

Mary Betha¹, Hani Gouda², Sukha Soumya Devi³ and Prabhat Rajgopal⁴

- Biostatistics was believed to be a difficult subject by more than 50%
- A very small proportion of respondents were confident enough in designing their own research projects and performing statistical analysis
- Dental professionals showed a low perceived knowledge of biostatistical concepts
- A clear recognition of the importance of these issues
- There is a need of changing the training pattern - An integrated approach to teaching biostatistics with clinical relevance
- Problem based learning into biostatistics course which can be quite helpful

Measures of Central Tendency

A measure of central tendency is a single value that attempts to describe a set of data by identifying the central position within that set of data.

- Mean: The arithmetic average of the dataset is the mean.
 - The sample mean is the arithmetic average of the sample, denoted by \bar{x} .
 - The population mean is the arithmetic average of the population denoted by μ .
- Median: The median is the middle value of the dataset when it is arranged in ascending order.
 - For an odd number of data points, median equal to the middle data point.
 - For an even number of data points, median is equal to the mean of the two middle data points.
- Mode: The data value that occurs with the greatest frequency is the mode.
 - A dataset can have more than one mode
 - Both Categorical and Numerical Variables can have mode, but only Numerical Variables can have mean and median

Measures of Variability/ Dispersion

- Standard Deviation: It is the measure of the amount of variation or dispersion of a set of values.
 - The sample standard deviation is the square root of the sample variance: $sd = \sqrt{s}$
 - The population standard deviation is the square root of the population variance: $sd = \sqrt{\sigma^2}$.

	Variance	Standard Deviation
Population	$\sigma^2 = \frac{\sum (x_i - \mu)^2}{N}$	$\sigma = \sqrt{\frac{\sum (x_i - \mu)^2}{N}}$
Sample	$s^2 = \frac{\sum (x_i - \bar{x})^2}{N - 1}$	$s = \sqrt{\frac{\sum (x_i - \bar{x})^2}{N - 1}}$ vineet kr. Kamal is presenting

COEFFICIENT OF VARIATION

- ❖ SD depends on the unit of measurement
- ❖ The coefficient of variation is a measure used to compare the variability among two or more sets of data representing different quantities with different units of measurement

For instance, the strength of two types of prefabricated posts, carbon fiber post (CFP) and polyethylene fiber-reinforced post (PFRP), on endodontically treated teeth are being studied.

The sample mean and the sample SD of the fracture load for CFP are $\bar{X}_A = 67.57$ kg and $S_A = 26.57$ kg, and those for PFRP are $\bar{X}_B = 132.55$ lbs and $S_B = 36.19$ lbs, respectively

Probability

What is the chance that titanium implants placed in patients who smoke more than 20 cigarettes a day will survive 5 years?

- ❖ A probability is a number that reflects the chance or likelihood that a particular event will occur.
- ❖ Expressed as proportions that range from 0 to 1, or percentages ranging from 0% to 100%
- ❖ A probability of 0 indicates that there is no chance whereas a probability of 1 indicates that an event is certain to occur. A probability of 0.45 (45%) indicates that there are 45 chances out of 100 of the event occurring.
