REPORT

For commemorating the birthday of pioneer oral pathologist Dr.H.M.Dholakhia, it is celebrated as “NATIONAL ORAL PATHOLOGIST DAY” on 25th February. On behalf of this occasion we the Department of Oral and Maxillo-Facial pathology have conducted Online Painting/Soap carving competition for students of all the years. Students were asked to mail their work to Department mail-Id.

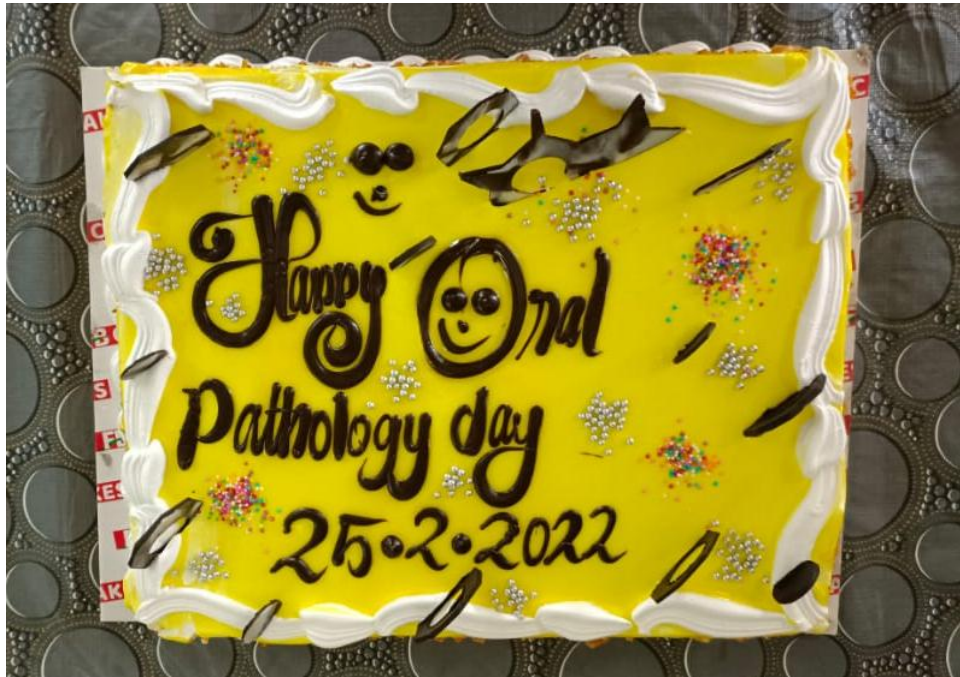

Students have actively participated with a total of around 40 entries. On that day it was celebrated by cake cutting in the presence of other department staffs and participated students. All the students were appreciated with an E-Certificate.
