Topic

Lecture – Challenges in Direct Aesthetic Restoration

Modern dentistry is very exciting. New advances in materials and equipment are happening every day and can be very stimulating to any young/senior practitioner. We are living in a constantly changing, evolving world. New paradigms are made and old ones discarded.

Presentation will cover all composite work that we do in our routine practice with focus on aesthetically functional of restorations, failure of composites and how to take care of them.

Direct Anterior restorations with polychromatic layering techniques, Shade selection & staining techniques.

Posterior Composite restorations in Covid-19 Scenario – Efficiency, Durability & Esthetics.

REPORT:

A program was conducted on challenges in direct aesthetic restoration by Dr. Shaik Shafe Khalid on 22nd March, 2021. The lecture presentation was an interactive session catering all the students and staffs.

Dr. Shaik Shafe Khalid gave his valuable inputs on how to tackle the challenges in direct aesthetic restoration. We are living in a constantly changing, evolving world. New paradigms are made and old ones discarded.

Presentation covered all composite work that we do in our routine practice with focus on aesthetically functional of restorations, failure of composites and how to take care of them.

Direct Anterior restorations with polychromatic layering techniques, Shade selection, staining techniques and posterior Composite restorations in Covid-19 Scenario – Efficiency, Durability & Esthetics. He discussed the important properties of various types of composite such as polymerization shrinkage, C- factor, curing light intensity etc.

This was a institution - company interaction program and one of the best methods to inculcate the properties of materials to the students and staffs for achieving a better clinical outcome.
